

U.S. Privacy Policy and Notice

The information and materials on this website are for educational and informational purposes only. It is not a recommendation or solicitation of any offer to buy or sell any security or other financial instrument, to participate in any investment strategy, or to open any particular account type. The appropriateness of a particular investment or strategy will depend on an investor's individual circumstances and objectives. The materials may contain forward-looking statements and there can be no guarantee that they will come to pass. Past performance is not a guarantee of future performance. Asset allocation and diversification do not guarantee a profit or protect against loss in a declining financial market.

This is not an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy securities, products or services by any person or entity in any jurisdiction or country where such distribution or use would be contrary to law or regulation.

Investing in securities involves risk, including the potential loss of principal invested. Hypothetical scenarios presented do not represent any specific investment or investment strategy and are not intended to predict the returns of any particular investment or investment strategy. Investments carry varying degrees of risk and will fluctuate based upon several factors including, but not limited to, market conditions. Scenarios do not account for other factors that may impact account performance such as advisory fees and brokerage commissions as well as taxes at any level (e.g. Federal, State or Local).

When Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC, its affiliates and Morgan Stanley Financial Advisors and Private Wealth Advisors (collectively, "Morgan Stanley") provide "investment advice" regarding a retirement or welfare benefit plan account, an individual retirement account or a Coverdell education savings account ("Retirement Account"), Morgan Stanley is a "fiduciary" as those terms are defined under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), and/or the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), as applicable. When Morgan Stanley provides investment education, takes orders on an unsolicited basis or otherwise does not provide "investment advice", Morgan Stanley will not be considered a "fiduciary" under ERISA and/or the Code. For more information regarding Morgan Stanley's role with respect to a Retirement Account, please visit www.morganstanley.com/disclosures/dol. Tax laws are complex and subject to change. Morgan Stanley does not provide tax or legal advice. Individuals are encouraged to consult their tax and legal advisors (a) before establishing a Retirement Account, and (b) regarding any potential tax, ERISA and related consequences of any investments or other transactions made with respect to a Retirement Account.

The scenarios presented are not intended to serve as investment advice and do not consider your specific financial resources, investment goals, tax, investing time horizon and other relevant factors holistically. They are hypothetical scenarios used for illustrative, informational, and educational purposes only.
