3. SUBJECT OF THE AGREEMENT:

This Agreement sets down the principles whereby the Portfolio Manager shall enter into transactions in relation to Financial Assets and Capital Market Instruments on behalf of the Customer and to arrange for collateral to be posted on behalf of the Customer. The Portfolio Manager shall act through those employed by the Portfolio Manager and as indicated in Appendix 3 of this Agreement. The principles of management of the Portfolio by such person(s) in the name and account and for and on behalf of the Customer, shall be in accordance with of the Customer's risk diversification preferences and investment limitations and restrictions and the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures.

4. MANAGEMENT POWERS OF THE PORTFOLIO MANAGER AND PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT PRINCIPLES:

4.1. MANAGEMENT POWERS OF THE PORTFOLIO MANAGER:

Without prejudice to the Portfolio Management Principles enumerated in Article 41 of the Communiqué, the Portfolio Manager will be fully authorized, and will not be required to get a separate prior instruction or consent from the Customer to sell all or any Financial Assets included in the Customer's Portfolio at any time and at any price deemed fit, or to purchase the same for its own portfolio at any price deemed fit, and to purchase all or any Financial Assets or Capital Market Instruments for the Customer's Portfolio, or to sell Financial Assets or Capital Market Instruments from its own portfolio to the Customer's Portfolio, or to enter into transactions on behalf of the Customer, all in its sole option and discretion, but subject always to the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures.

The Portfolio Manager may also enter into transactions on behalf of the Customer which provide for payments for or under Capital Markets Instruments, Financial Assets, or other transactions to be paid directly by the Customer (which shall be the principal in relation to such transactions).

The Portfolio Manager will only be held liable in case of its negligence and willful default and for the results of the transactions executed by virtue of the portfolio management powers under this Agreement or if the Portfolio Manager acts outside the portfolio management powers under this Agreement.

The intermediary institution authorized for trading for the Portfolio is the Portfolio Manager.

4.2. PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT PRINCIPLES:

4.2.1. The Portfolio Manager may accept and receive commissions, discounts and similar other benefits from any issuer or intermediary institution in consideration of the trading transactions hereunder, by duly informing the Customer, provided, however, that it will not be obliged to state the amount of such benefits.

4.2.2. Financial Assets may not be purchased for the Portfolio at a price above their current market price, nor may Financial Assets be sold from the Portfolio at a price below this price, unless otherwise instructed by the Customer in writing or in accordance with the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures. Current market price is the exchange price for Financial Assets traded in the exchange, and is the lowest price in purchasing and the highest price in selling in favor of the Portfolio in the transaction day for Financial Assets not traded in the exchange.

4.2.3. The Portfolio Manager is not allowed to execute any legal act or transaction in its own favour or in favour of third parties on the Capital Market Instruments and cash included in the Portfolio, nor is it allowed to transfer or deliver the Capital Market Instruments and cash included in the Portfolio to any third person for any purpose other than the Portfolio management activities hereunder, without a specific written instruction of the Customer.

4.2.4. The Portfolio Manager is not allowed to trade any of the Capital Market Instruments included in the Portfolio in its own interests. The Portfolio

Manager is under obligation to show due care and due diligence and act prudently as required in its orders to be given in the account of the Customer.

- 4.2.5. The Portfolio Manager may not execute transactions with results in favor of its own portfolios or in favor of any one or more of the portfolios and in disfavor of other portfolios under its management, in conflict with the objective good faith rules.
- 4.2.6. The Portfolio Manager is required to base its Portfolio related investment decisions upon reasons and documents believed to be true and reliable within reasonable limits and at all times in accordance with the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures, and is entitled and authorized to transact by considering the financial standing and situation of the Customer.
- 4.2.7. The Portfolio Manager may not give any verbal or written guarantee for a particular predetermined yield and return on the Portfolio investments to the Customer.
- 4.2.8. The Portfolio Manager is obliged to act in favor of and in interests of the Customer in case of a conflict between the interests of the Customer and its own interests.
- 4.2.9. Names and expressions that may be associated with any activity other than portfolio management may not be used to define managed portfolios. A joint collective portfolio cannot be formed and managed by using the monies collected previously for a particular period of portfolio management, and new customers cannot be allowed to participate in an existing portfolio, and advertisements and announcements containing such terms and expressions cannot be published.
- 4.2.10. The Portfolio Manager may not facilitate unnecessary trading transactions for a Customer, or to assist third parties in doing so or permit third parties to do so, with the intention of making profit of its own by affecting the trading decisions of the Customer by making use of the lack of knowledge or lack of experience of the Customer regarding the markets.
- 4.2.11. The Portfolio Manager will not allow or permit its employees to trade or invest in their own name and account in any manner whatsoever using systems or facilities of the Portfolio Manager and shall ensure that its employees at all times act in accordance with the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures.
- 4.2.12. In the event that the Portfolio Manager has access to results of market studies which may affect investment decisions of its customers the Portfolio Manager is required to disclose such information to Customers verbally or in writing before the Portfolio Manager can use such document for its own interests.

5. RESTRICTIONS ON THE PORTFOLIO MANAGER'S PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT POWERS IN TERMS OF FORMATION OF PORTFOLIO, DETERMINATION OF ITS COMPOSITION AND DIVERSIFICATION OF RISK:

In the formation of the Portfolio, determination of Financial Assets and diversification of risk, the Portfolio Manager will act in line with and within the framework of Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures and the parameters set out in Appendix 1 hereof.

6. PARTIAL WITHDRAWAL FROM PORTFOLIO:

The Customer may reduce or increase the scope of assets within the Portfolio at any time by request. To the extent that any change in scope of assets within the Portfolio requires that the Portfolio Manager liquidate assets held on behalf of the Customer, the Portfolio Manager will execute such orders of the Customer as soon as possible under the existing market conditions and, in any case, upon 3 business days' prior demand of the Customer.

7. VALUATION OF PORTFOLIO ASSETS:

- (a) Fixed income Capital Market Instruments will be valued by reference to their weighted average price on the valuation day in the exchange where they are purchased, or as otherwise required in line with the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures.
- (b) Fixed income Capital Market Instruments issued in a foreign currency will be valued over their weighted average price on the valuation day in the exchange where they are purchased, multiplied by the Morgan Stanley end of day valuation methodology for the relevant foreign currency, or as otherwise required in line with the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures.
- (c) Share certificates purchased from Borsa Istanbul will be valued over the closing prices of the last session of that day and if a particular share certificates has not been traded that day, it will be valued over its last transaction price, or as otherwise required in line with the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures.
- (d) Newly issued share certificates will be valued over their issue price until they are traded in the exchange, and over the closing price of the last session after they are started to be traded in the exchange, or as otherwise required in line with the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures.
- (e) FX transactions and over the counter derivative instruments will be valued in accordance with the Customer's valuation methodology and mark-to-market methods.
- (f) Derivative instruments will be valued by reference to their weighted average price on the valuation day in the exchange where they are purchased, or as otherwise required in line with the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures.

8. CALCULATION OF YEARLY YIELD:

The individual Portfolio rate of yield is the expression in percentage of the variation in the Individual Portfolio Value as of the end of the performance period in accordance with the principles and procedures set forth in the Communiqué VII-128.5. Pursuant to Article 6 of the Communiqué VII-128.5, portfolio yield ratio corresponds to the change in the Individual Portfolio Value after relevant costs are deducted as at the end of relevant period.

In determining and calculating the individual Portfolio rate of yield, the applicable provisions of the Communiqué VII-128.5 will be taken into account.

9. DISTRIBUTION OR REINVESTMENT OF PORTFOLIO OPERATING PROFIT:

For the avoidance of doubt the parties agree that operating profit on the Portfolio will be retained by the Customer, as Financial Assets will be held in the relevant accounts as registered in the name of the Customer.

10. CORPORATE ACTIONS ASSOCIATED WITH CAPITAL MARKET INSTRUMENTS INCLUDED IN THE PORTFOLIO:

All and any rights relating to the Capital Market Instruments in the Portfolio (e.g. the exercise of a pre-emptive in right in rights issue, collection of dividends, participation to bonus issuances, collection of coupon payments), will be exercised by the Portfolio Manager in the name of the Customer to the extent of availability of sufficient cash in the Portfolio and if the Portfolio Manager considers such exercise to be in the interests of the Customer. If the Portfolio does not contain sufficient cash funds, the Customer hereby accepts and acknowledges that the Portfolio Manager may in its sole and free discretion use the rights of option by providing adequate liquidity as required in the Portfolio, and that its investment preference also favors such use. If the Customer wishes to attend and exercise its voting rights at the meetings of the holders of Capital Market Instruments held in the Portfolio, the Portfolio Manager shall assist the Customer in doing so. The Portfolio Manager shall not attend such meetings in the name of the Customer. In case of the insolvency of Takasbank, if requested by the Customer, the Portfolio Manager will use its commercially reasonable endeavors to return the Collateral to an account provided by the Customer.

11. METHOD OF TRANSMISSION OF THE CUSTOMER 'S DEMANDS:

All demands, orders and notices of each party will be issued and made in writing or via emails.

12. CUSTODY OF ASSETS IN PORTFOLIO:

Financial Assets that constitute the Portfolio will be held in the relevant accounts as registered in the name of the Customer. To the extent that any Financial Assets are held on behalf of the Customer by the Portfolio Manager, it shall hold such assets in custody accordance with applicable regulations, and all measures and actions required for the safe custody and separate monitoring and recording of such assets shall be taken by the Portfolio Manager.

All custody costs and expenses and insurance premiums shall be for the account of the Customer.

The Portfolio Manager shall have authority to take all kinds of actions and enter into all kinds of transactions with regard to, and deliver and receive, the Capital Market Instruments and cash of the Customer, either kept in custody and/or held directly by the Customer, in the name and account of the Customer, subject at all times to the Global Risk Management Policies and Procedures.

The Capital Market Instruments and the cash delivered by the Customer to the Portfolio Manager will be transferred and posted by the Portfolio Manager to the Customer accounts held with a duly appointed custodian on the same day, or to the Customer's account held with the custodian in the next business day at the latest.

The provisions of the regulations pertaining to investment funds and investment partnerships are, however, reserved.

The foreign Capital Market Instruments and other foreign Portfolio assets held for Portfolio purposes will be kept in custody with a duly appointed custodian.

13. CUSTOMER COLLATERAL ASSETS :

In compliance with the Capital Market Regulations, the Portfolio Manager will request from time to time, collateral assets from the Customer for transactions that will be executed on behalf of the Customer's Portfolio in Borsa Istanbul A.S.. The Portfolio Manager will post such collateral assets into a collateral account with Istanbul Takas ve Saklama Bankasi A.S. such that the Portfolio Manager holds such collateral assets on behalf of the Customer. As per the Capital Markets Regulation, the Portfolio Manager is obliged to record these collateral assets in its legal books and records, separately from its own assets to reflect that the collateral assets belong solely to the Customer. The Portfolio Manager is not allowed to otherwise deal with the collateral assets for any other purpose, unless advance, explicit written consent from the Customer is provided.

14. DISCLOSURES TO CUSTOMER :

Unless otherwise requested by the Customer in writing, the Portfolio Manager will, at the end of each month, send to the address of the Customer, a Portfolio Statement showing the portfolio movements during and the portfolio composition as of the end of that period. In addition, the Customer may, whenever deemed necessary, request all and any Portfolio information from the Portfolio Manager.

15. PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT COMMISSION

Commissions to be paid by the Customer are described in Appendix 5. Commission structure and rates can be changed by the Portfolio Manager in order to reflect changes in regulation and/or market conditions. All changes will be notified to the Customer in written form by email, after they have been reviewed by the global transfer pricing team. If the Portfolio Manager does not receive any written objection from the Customer within 7 business days of having made the notification, then new rates/commissions will become effective starting from the beginning of the calendar year in which the rate change proposal is submitted. Appendix 5 of this Agreement will be updated to reflect the new rates/commissions and remain in force until any further changes are made.

16. LIABILITY FOR EXPENSES, TAXES, DUTIES AND COSTS OF THE AGREEMENT:

- 16.1. All kinds of costs of the works and transactions, and correspondences and notices, as well as mail expenses, notary fees, and fees of legal, financial and administrative consulting services, relating to this Agreement will be for the account of and paid by the Customer.
- 16.2. Stamp Tax levied on this Agreement, and all types of costs and premiums payable for insurance of the assets under the conditions deemed convenient and fit by the Portfolio Manager and Borsa Istanbul, and Banking and Insurance Transactions Tax levied on such payments, and all kinds of commissions, and Banking and Insurance Transactions Tax levied on these commissions, and all of the costs and expenses levied or to be levied on the portfolio management, and all and any commissions, charges and fees payable to the intermediary institutions in consideration for trading of Capital Market Instruments in the Portfolio, and all other moneys required to be paid by the Customer pursuant to and under this Agreement will be paid directly by the Customer to the Portfolio Manager.
- 16.3. The right of collection by the Portfolio Manager arises as soon as the transaction is executed or the cost is incurred.

17. CAPITAL MARKET INSTRUMENTS DELIVERED BY THE CUSTOMER :

The Customer will be held liable for any missing coupons of Capital Market Instruments or for the stolen, false, banned or restricted Capital Market Instruments and for all kinds of defects in Capital Market Instruments delivered by it to the Portfolio Manager pursuant to and under this Agreement and its Appendices.

18. JOINT PROVISIONS:

18.1. INSURANCE:

The Portfolio Manager may take out and maintain an insurance cover in favor of the Customer with any insurance company chosen by the Portfolio Manager for all of the Capital Market Instruments and any collateral arrangements required to be given or established in accordance with the principles of this Agreement against fire, transport, theft, payment prohibition, fraud and other destruction risks and against all kinds of other risks and perils that may be deemed necessary by the Portfolio Manager. Capital Market Instruments kept in custody by a duly appointed custodian will be subject to and governed by the existing regulations relating thereto.

18.2. RISK STATEMENT:

18.2.1 The Customer hereby acknowledges that:

- (i) it understands that Capital Market Instruments are exposed to risks of varying degrees, and that the profit shares, interests or other yields expected from transactions or investments may not be realized as expected,
- (ii) the Portfolio Manager does not give any guarantee, assurance or promise as to income or return, and the Customer may lose some or all of its principal,
- (iii) if the Customer fails to abide by the provisions of this Agreement, this Agreement may be terminated by the Portfolio Manager after 10 days following the notification to the Customer, and the Portfolio Manager may in its sole discretion realize and turn into cash an amount up to the outstanding debts owed to the Portfolio Manager, all and any of the Capital Market Instruments except the collateral held with any custodian, and the Portfolio Manager may at its option execute clearing, offset, deduction and virement transactions in and to the accounts held with any custodian.

18.2.2 The Customer confirms that it has fully read and understood this Agreement and its appendices and that the Portfolio Manager will in no case be held liable for its transactions hereunder except for its faults and that the Customer has freely entered into this Agreement.

18.3. NOTIFICATIONS:

The Customer hereby declares that its address and phone number are given in this Agreement for all communications and correspondences with it in connection with all matters relating to this Agreement, and accordingly, all notices and correspondences sent to the said address and phone number will be deemed to have been duly served on the Customer, and that even if the Customer is not personally present therein, the notices will not be returned and the provisions of Article 21 of the Service Process Code will be applied.

Unless the Customer duly informs the Portfolio Manager about a change of address by a letter in writing delivered by hand against a signed acknowledgement of receipt or by registered mail, return requested, the Portfolio Manager will be relieved of all liabilities relating to the outcomes and results of the failure by the Customer to so inform the Portfolio Manager.

18.4. JURISDICTION:

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Republic of Turkey. All kinds of disputes that may arise out of or in connection with this Agreement will be in the jurisdiction of Istanbul Courts and Execution Offices.

18.5. MATTERS NOT DEALT WITH IN THE AGREEMENT:

All and any matters on which this Agreement and its appendices remain silent will be governed by the provisions of other agreements signed by and between the Portfolio Manager and Customer, the regulations of the Capital Markets Board and the general provisions of laws, in the given order.

18.6. Invalidity of any one or several of the provisions of this Agreement does not affect this Agreement as a whole or the validity of the other provisions hereof. Should any provision of this Agreement be declared invalid, the parties may exercise all of their rights arising out of this Agreement, except those arising from the invalid provisions.

18.7. RETAINED RIGHTS:

In addition to its rights arising out of the general provisions of laws, the Portfolio Manager hereby retains and reserves, and may use in any frequency deemed fit, all of its rights arising out of this Agreement. Failure or delay of the Portfolio Manager in using any one of its rights shall not be a waiver of or change or modification in or suspension of such right. Termination of this Agreement in any manner whatsoever does not preclude the Portfolio Manager from using any of its present or future rights arising out of this Agreement.

19. DEFAULT OF THE CUSTOMER IN COMPLIANCE WITH PROVISIONS OF THE AGREEMENT:

19.1. In the event that the Customer fails to comply with the provisions of this Agreement and its appendices, or its accounts under this Agreement or its other accounts held with any custodian are in debit and the Customer fails to make the required payments on a timely basis, or the Customer makes untrue and misleading statements about its financial standing or situation or in other information given to the Portfolio Manager, Customer is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or is subject to execution proceedings, the Portfolio Manager may, without any further notice or warning or any legal proceeding, set off and deduct the outstanding debts of the Customer owed to the Portfolio Manager from and against the Capital Market Instruments held with any custodian in accordance with Article 118 and other related articles of the Code of Obligations. The Portfolio Manager is also authorized to settle the debts of the Customer arising out of this Agreement and its other accounts and to close the accounts of the Customer and to make virements between accounts in any manner deemed fit and necessary.

19.2. NOTICES:

All notices and statements of the Portfolio Manager will be sent to the address, telephone and fax numbers or e-mail address of the Customer given in this Agreement by any of the means of communication chosen by the Customer so as to be received by the Customer as fast as possible (by phone, fax, mail or via notary public).

19.3. DEFAULT INTEREST:

Upon default of the Customer in payments due to the Portfolio Manager, if the Portfolio Manager has not used its power of offset, a default interest of two times the Central Bank of Turkey overnight funding rate will be applied to overdue amounts in TRY.

20. TERM AND TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT AND LIQUIDATION OF PORTFOLIO:

This Agreement is entered into between the parties for an unlimited term. The Portfolio Manager may, with a one-month prior written notice, terminate the Agreement and close the Portfolio Accounts. The Customer may also terminate this Agreement by sending a one-month prior written notice, subject to payment of all kinds of present and future debts owed by the Customer to the Portfolio Manager under this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement and closing of the investment account, without prejudice to the foregoing, the existing balance of the account will be blocked by the Portfolio Manager in a non-interest bearing account in the name of the Customer until completion of all of the pending transactions. For the assets and instruments available in the closed account, a custody fee to be determined by the Portfolio Manager will be accrued and payable until they are physically received by the Customer.

If the Customer fails to take delivery of any Capital Market Instruments when due for delivery, the Customer will be obliged to immediately indemnify and pay all resulting expenses, damages and losses.

21. The Portfolio will be managed by whose curriculum vitae is given in Appendix 3 hereof, and by any other individuals duly appointed by the Portfolio Manager and notified to the Customer.

If and when the appointed individual leaves or is replaced, a new individual will be appointed by the Portfolio Manager and notified to the Customer in writing. Information about the new individual will also be added to this Agreement (by way of amendment to Appendix 4). If the Customer does not accept the newly appointed individual, it may terminate this Agreement pursuant to Article 19 hereof.

22. This Agreement is issued and signed in 2 copies on .../.../2018 and one copy hereof is given to the Customer.
23. This Agreement will be effective from .../.../2018.

COMMISSIONS TO BE PAID BY THE CUSTOMER

PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT
COMMISSION:

The Individual Portfolio Management Commission ("Fee") is determined at an annual rate of% for 2016 calendar year; calculated on the average Individual Portfolio Value, and to be collected on a monthly basis from the Customer. Pursuant to Article 5 of Communiqué VII-128.5, Portfolio Value is calculated on a daily basis unless otherwise determined by the Parties.

Monthly Fee Payable = Sum of Daily

Fees of the calendar month, calculated as below: Daily Fee: ...% *End of

Day Portfolio Value* No of Days

/365

(No of Days is the difference between today's date and next working business day. It is 1 for a Monday Portfolio Value when Tuesday is a working day, and it is 3 for Friday end-of-day Portfolio Value when next working day is Monday)

If part of the daily fee extends into next month (For example last day of the month is a Saturday and first day of next month is Sunday) then, only the portion that belongs to the current calendar month is collected. 1 day-fee that belongs to Sunday is collected in next calendar month.

In case of early termination of this Agreement or settlement and liquidation of the Individual Portfolio, as of the date of settlement and liquidation, the fee will be calculated over the average of the end-of-day Individual Portfolio Value in that period and be debited to the Individual Portfolio Account of the Customer.

CLIENT CLASSIFICATION INFORMATION SHEET

Pursuant to the Communiqué on Establishment and Activity Principles of the Investment Institutions (III-39-1) issued by the Capital Markets Board, our Intermediary Institution is obliged to classify its clients as Professional or General Clients and fulfil its obligations according to this classification. Under the same Communiqué, our Intermediary Institution is obliged to provide information regarding your class and your right to change your class based on the relevant legislation provisions.

Those clients which are not Professional Clients are classified as General Clients. The definition of Professional Client is as follows.

"Professional Client" means a client who is able to take his own investment decisions and has the experience, knowledge and expertise to assess the risks undertaken. In order for a client to be considered as a professional client, he needs to meet one of the following descriptions or he needs to have the qualifications described:
