Opportunities to Provide Humanitarian Relief in Israel and Gaza

For philanthropists moved to support those affected by the crisis, below is a curated list of nonprofit organizations that are providing humanitarian relief across a wide array of areas including food security, medical relief, shelter, social services, and children's welfare. This list is not comprehensive, as there are countless organizations providing support in the region, and we encourage your own further research and reflection. This guide is intended to support humanitarian relief efforts and excludes organizations engaged in providing military aid. If you have any questions about the organizations listed or would like Philanthropy Management to review an organization that you are considering funding, please reach out to your Financial Advisor.

American Friends of Leket Israel

- EIN: 20-8202424
- Impact Area(s): Food Security
- Description: Leket Israel, the National Food Bank, is the leading food rescue organization in Israel. Leket Israel has swiftly launched three emergency relief programs in the South of Israel. These initiatives were developed in collaboration with local non-profit organizations and in response to direct requests from recipients, addressing their most pressing needs.
 - For Homebound Individuals and Seniors: Leket will purchase 320,000 cooked meals. These meals will be delivered to recipients directly or through local non-profit organizations.
 - For Families: Leket will purchase essential supplies, including food, diapers, formula, and more, from local grocery stores in the South. These supplies will be distributed by local non-profit organizations in the South, supporting both families in need and local business owners.
 - Leket will provide financial assistance through magnetic cards, to help individuals affected by the war. This program aims to assist those whose income has been impacted or who lack access to their consistent sources of aid.
