

Dr. Kim Henderson

Managing Director

Associate Medical Director

Dr. Kim Henderson is a Managing Director and the Associate Medical Director at Morgan Stanley, where she provides direct oversight of and coordination among the firm's global medical, health and wellness services. Prior to joining Morgan Stanley, Dr. Henderson was the Senior Medical Director at CVS Health, where she spent 14 years supporting enterprise-wide initiatives and retail health programs, including oversight of MinuteClinic nurse practitioners. Dr. Henderson has 17 years in the medical field and is an attending emergency medicine physician at Mount Sinai Beth Israel Medical Center. She holds an MD and JD from Georgetown University. Dr. Henderson lives in lower Manhattan with her husband; 16-year-old son Max; and 3-year-old Rhodesian ridgeback, Hildy. Dr. Henderson's older son Josh, 20, is a junior at George Washington University, majoring in engineering.

Darla Pires DeGrace

Executive Director

Global Head of Diversity Talent Acquisition

Darla Pires DeGrace is Executive Director, Global Head of Diversity Talent Acquisition at Morgan Stanley. Darla has a proven track record of building strategic recruitment partnerships, successfully launching employee resource groups, and facilitating diversity and inclusion professional development workshops. Prior to Morgan Stanley, Darla served as CEO, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Strategist for DeGrace Group Consulting LLC, a thriving diversity staffing and culture solutions firm she launched in 2017. DeGrace Group clients span multiple sectors including government agencies, global corporate and national nonprofit clients. She is the President Emeritus and an Executive Board Member the National Black MBA Association-Boston, co-chairs the BASE Women's Leadership Council, and is a member of the board of trustees for the Boys and Girls Clubs, Leadership Brainery, and Commonwealth Corporation. She was appointed by Massachusetts Governor Charlie Baker to serve on both the Black Advisory and Plymouth 400 commissions.

Cheryl Kaba

Executive Director

D&I Advisor for Finance, Risk Management and Internal Audit

Cheryl Kaba is an Executive Director on Morgan Stanley's Diversity and Inclusion team. In her role as D&I Advisor for Finance, Risk Management and Internal Audit, she collaborates with HR and divisional leaders to improve diverse representation, advancement and retention by implementing programs that embed DEI into processes and culture. Prior to Morgan Stanley, Cheryl spent 11 years at American Express, where she held a variety of roles in Finance, Global Re-engineering and Small Merchant Pricing Strategy and served as Chief of Staff to the CFO of Global Consumer Services and Global Diversity and Inclusion. Upon joining Diversity and Inclusion, Cheryl was instrumental in revamping the D&I goal-setting process and designing marquee forums for Global Black Executives and Global Executive Women. Cheryl earned her B.A. in economics from Duke University and her MBA from Columbia Business School. She currently lives in Montclair, New Jersey, with her husband and very precocious five-year-old daughter, Madison.

Trisha King

Executive Director

Global Head of Talent Attraction and Engagement

Trisha King is an Executive Director and Global Head of Talent Attraction and Engagement at Morgan Stanley. In these roles, she focuses on elevating Morgan Stanley's employer brand among campus- and experienced-level candidates around the globe—particularly those from diverse backgrounds—through strategic marketing, communications and events. She is passionate about leveraging storytelling to help organizations and individuals effectively operate with purpose and communicate their values and impact.

Trisha's experience spans multiple sectors including nonprofit, higher ed, international development and business. She most recently worked at BlackRock, where she spent the last few years focusing on their global employer brand strategy, marketing and content production.