WHAT IS THIS PRODUCT ?

Morgan Stanley Investment Funds Asian Equity Fund is a sub-fund of Morgan Stanley Investment Funds which is constituted in the form of a mutual fund. It is domiciled in Luxembourg and its home regulator is the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (CSSF).

OBJECTIVES AND INVESTMENT STRATEGY

Objective

Long term growth of your investment.

Strategy

At least 70% of the sub-fund's value will be invested in equities of companies (for the avoidance of doubt including closed-end Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITS) based in or carrying out most of their business in Asia excluding Japan). The sub-fund invests in both emerging and developed markets.

The sub-fund may also invest up to 30% of its value in other investments such as depositary receipts (ADRs, GDRs, IDRs, EDRs), convertible bonds, preference shares, debentures, participatory notes, warrants, China A-Shares via Stock Connect and to a limited extent in collective investment schemes including those managed by the Investment Adviser, Sub Adviser or advisers affiliated either to the Investment Adviser or Sub Adviser and closed-end funds, ETFs and illiquid securities. Investment in China A-Shares via Stock Connect may not exceed 10% of the sub-fund's value.

The investment process takes into account information about environmental, social, and governance issues (also referred to as ESG) when making investment decisions. The Investment Adviser focuses on engaging company management around corporate governance practices as well as what it deems to be materially important environmental and/or social issues facing a company.

Financial derivative instruments may be used for efficient portfolio management, in order to gain exposure to certain markets at a lower cost or to reduce risk. The sub-fund does not invest extensively or primarily in financial derivatives instruments for investment purposes.

For the purpose of cash management, the sub-fund may hold cash and/or invest in cash equivalents such as money market instruments or money market funds, including those managed by the Investment Adviser, Sub Adviser or advisers affiliated either to the Investment Adviser or the Sub Adviser (please refer to the Prospectus for further details).

WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS ?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the offering document including the section headed "Risk Factors" for details including the risk factors.

1. Risk of Investment in Equity

Funds which invest in equity securities are subject to the volatility of the capital markets on which these securities are traded and may incur significant losses. The price of equities can be influenced by many factors at the individual company level, as well as by broader economic and political developments, including trends in economic growth, inflation and interest rates, corporate earnings reports, demographic trends and catastrophic events. The value of shares may fall in value and decrease the value of your investment as a whole.

2. Emerging Market Risk

The Asia ex Japan region contains developed and emerging market economies. Investing in companies operating in emerging market economies carries a higher level of risk as political, legal and operational systems in those markets may be less developed than developed markets.

3. Exchange Rate Risk

The value of your investment will be impacted by changes in the currency exchange rates between the sub-fund's base currency (US Dollars) and the currencies in which the underlying securities are denominated.

4. Depositary Receipts

Depositary receipts such as ADRs, GDRs, IDRs and EDRs represent shares in companies trading outside of the recognized exchanges in which the depositary receipts are traded. There is a risk that the shares underlying the depositary receipt may be subject to political, inflationary, exchange rate or custody risk.

5. Exposure to the Euro and the Eurozone

The Eurozone is an economic and monetary union of 19 European member states that have adopted the Euro as their common currency and sole legal tender. The success of the Euro and the Eurozone is therefore dependent on the general economic and political condition of each member state, as well as each state's credit worthiness and the willingness of the members to remain committed to monetary union and support for the other members. Currently, there are widely held concerns in the market regarding the credit risk associated with certain sovereigns, including some member states of the Eurozone, and the continued viability of the Eurozone.

Default by any state on its Euro debts or a material decline in the credit rating of any Eurozone state could have a material negative impact on the Company and its investments. A number of the sub-funds of the Company may operate in Euro and/or may hold Euro denominated assets either directly or as collateral. In addition, the Company's counterparties, banks, custodians and service providers may have direct or indirect exposure to these countries or currency and a default or credit decline could impact their ability to meet their obligations to and/or perform services for the Company. In the event of one or more member states exiting the Eurozone, or the abandonment of the Euro entirely, there may be material negative impact on some or all sub-funds of the Company and the value of investments, including risk of redenomination from Euro into another currency, possible capital controls and legal uncertainty as to the ability to enforce obligations and debts.

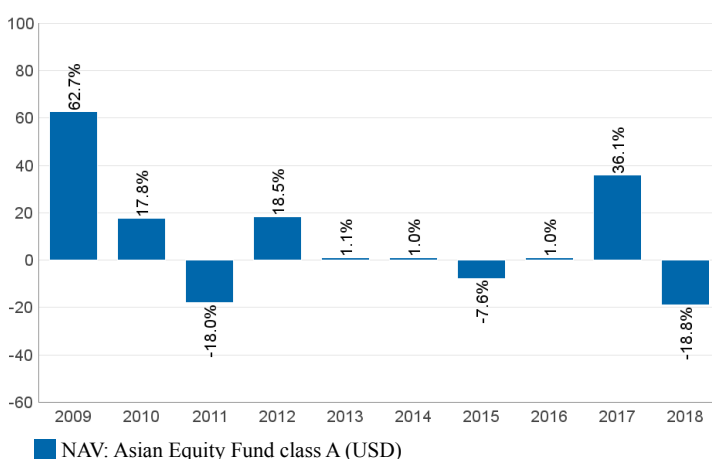

Prospective shareholders should inform themselves as to the risks surrounding the Eurozone crisis and the associated risk of an investment in the Company, taking into account the uncertainty as to how the Eurozone crisis and more general global economic situation will continue to evolve.

6. Investments in REITS

REITS are companies that acquire and/or develop real property for long term investment purposes. They invest the majority of their assets directly in real property and derive their income primarily from rents. By investing in REITS through the sub-fund you will bear not only the proportionate share of the management fees of the sub-fund but also indirectly, the management expenses of the underlying REITS.

The underlying REITS which the sub-fund may invest in may not necessarily be authorized by the Securities and Futures Commission and the dividend or pay out policy of the sub-fund is not representative of the dividend or pay out policy of the underlying REITS.
