Participant Notice: Continuous Cross Book Launch

23/05/2019

Dear Morgan Stanley MTF Participant,

Morgan Stanley would like to inform participants of the production launch on the 27th May 2019 of the Morgan Stanley MTF Continuous Cross Book, as described in the Rulebook.

The Continuous Cross book has been authorised for use as a dark book operating under the MiFID reference price waiver "RPW" and large in scale waiver ("LIS"), however from launch LIS functionality will be disabled until further notice.

Access to the Continuous Cross book is currently available in the test environment and for enquiries related to trading rights and certification please contact: ctsg@euronext.com

Section 6.1 of the Rulebook has been updated to reflect the fact that waivers have now been granted permitting the use of this book. The Rulebook and further information relating to the MTF can be found on the Morgan Stanley MTF website.

Best regards,

Morgan Stanley MTF
